

The Clothes Closet

Goodwill ~ Redwood Empire maintains a Clothes Closet providing job seekers with interview-appropriate clothing to help make a positive first impression. It is located at our main facility at 651 Yolanda Avenue, Santa Rosa.

Donations are only accepted at our Yolanda Avenue location and must be designated to the Clothes Closet when being dropped off. We accept donations of interview and business appropriate clothing, shoes, jewelry and scarves. The Clothes Closet is entirely supported through the generous donations of individuals, businesses and service organizations. All donations are tax deductible.

Over the years we have provided interview and job appropriate apparel to thousands of financially disadvantaged job seekers and newly employed individuals because of our generous donors. Thank you!
